

CALL FOR VOLUNTEER BOARD MEMBER

Professional Representative

Term: 2018 - 2020

ABOUT BCAPOP

The BC Association of Pregnancy Outreach Programs is a member driven non-profit society, representing over 50 pregnancy outreach programs (POPs) throughout the province of BC.

POPs provide perinatal and early parenting support to women and their families who experience health or lifestyle challenges during pregnancy, birth and the transition to parenting. You can learn more about BCAPOP at www.bcapop.ca.

BCAPOP is currently seeking a volunteer board member for a Professional Representative for the 2018-2020 Term

PROFESSIONAL BOARD SEAT REQUIREMENTS

- Registered healthcare professional [i.e. registered nurse; registered dietician; registered midwife; registered physician].
- Experience working in perinatal health.
- Availability for monthly, weekday board meetings via conference call (currently third Thursday 8:45 AM - 10:15).
- Attendance at AGM (held during the annual conference, typically in October in Richmond, BC). 2018 AGM scheduled for October 4, 8:30 AM - 9:20 AM.
- Attendance at annual BCAPOP Board Face-to-Face meeting in Vancouver. (This meeting is typically 2 full weekdays in April. The dates are chosen by the board. Transportation and accommodation provided if needed.)
- BC resident.

MINDSET

- You are a motivated, experienced registered healthcare professional with a passion for perinatal health.
- You take an active role in promoting non-profit societies and events, enjoy collaborating on projects and working as part of a team.

BENEFITS

- The opportunity to make a meaningful contribution to perinatal health.
- Networking with other perinatal professionals throughout the province.
- Professional development.

APPLICATION PROCESS

- Submit a letter of interest (300 words max) outlining why you feel you would be a good candidate for this position to the BCAPOP Executive Director, Anne Guarasci, at ed@bcapop.ca by September 14, 2018.
- Short-listed candidates will be presented to the BCAPOP membership at the 2018 AGM during the board elections.
